Where am I covered?

Cover applies to computers bought in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, and for use anywhere in the world. If the computer suffers mechanical electrical breakdown outside of the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man it must be returned to the United Kingdom the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man to be repaired or replaced.

What are my obligations?

Disclosing important information

(This applies if you are a private individual taking out the insurance wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to your business, trade or profession) You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to questions you are asked when you take out or make any changes to your policy.

Duty of fair presentation

(This applies if you are taking out the insurance contract in any other capacity)

Under the Insurance Act 2015, you have a duty to make fair representation of the risk to us before the policy starts, when you make any amendments to your cover and when you renew your policy. This means you must:

- Disclose all material facts which you know or ought to know (A "material fact" is information that would influence our decision as to whether to insure you and, if so, on what terms)
- Make the disclosure in a reasonably clear and accessible way and;
- Ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct and made in good faith

Full details of what constitutes "fair presentation" and the consequences of breaching this duty are given in the Policy Document

When and how do I pay?

You pay for this insurance as a one-off payment by credit or debit card at the beginning of each period of cover. Should you wish to make any amendments to the policy there will be a £10 administration fee for each amendment made.

When does the cover start and end?

Your cover starts on the policy start date shown on your Policy Schedule and continues for a period 12,24 or 36 months depending on the duration selected and shown on your Policy Schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

You have the right to cancel this policy within 30 days of the date you purchased the policy or when you received the policy documents, if this is later. This is known as your cooling off period. You do not need to provide a reason for cancellation, and we will provide a full refund of any premium paid, unless you have made a claim or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim.

If you wish to cancel the policy after 30 days, we will provide a refund, less a proportionate charge for any cover already provided, unless a claim has been made or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim.

This will be based on the number of months remaining until the expiry date, less an administration fee applied by the administrator of £10 or 25%, whichever is the greater amount.

Where a claim has occurred or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim no refund of premium will be provided.
